Here is your chance to visit a place that few people have had the opportunity to explore. The south of Russia is sure to surprise and excite you. From palm trees on the coast of the Black Sea to world class skiing in the mountains at Dombai, not only is this area rich in natural beauty, it's history is rich, too.

Our trained bi-lingual tourist guides will accompany participants on their journeys from the Black Sea to Volgograd. We'll even help you polish up your Russian language skills no matter what your level is. Our professional bi-lingual language teachers can help students with no previous training in Russian to acquire a survival level of Russian.
